LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

OCTOBER 2011

Hello, all –

Just got back from a wonderful week in Paris. I'm always amazed at the buildings, cathedrals, and museums in Europe – there is so much history there!

I took a day trip to the Normandy landing beaches and was overwhelmed with patriotism. Standing on the beaches, I felt the sacrifice of so many lives and the heroism of these soldiers. The French appreciation of those efforts is also visible throughout the country, even today.

The artwork at the Louvre and the D'Orsay was spectacular. There were so many other museums as well, but not enough time to visit everything. It was fun to watch the artists in Mont Marte – such talented people.

I think my favorite thing in Paris, corny as it may sound, was the Eiffel Tower. I hadn't realized how big it was. I walked the 10 stories to the second level to have dinner – what a wonderful evening and view of the city.

On Sunday we went to mass at Sacre Coure (top of Mont Marte) in the morning, and ended up going to mass at Notre Dame in the evening! Two beautiful cathedrals . . . we definitely covered a lot of territory that day!

Although I truly love to travel and explore new cities/countries, it's always great to return home! Nothing like sleeping in your own bed . . .

I look forward to seeing everyone at Hyperion on the 20th for our Woman of the Year program! Please invite guests!

Best Regards,

Becky Patton-Quigley
